October Coin of the Month

This month we have a special item donated by Pam Talmadge and Derzon's Coins. It is a 12x15 inch attractively framed copy of the Declaration of Independence with three 1976 Bicentennial coins included in the frame. Bidding starts at $5.00 for this exceptional display item.

October 2013 MNS President's Message

By the time you read this, our Club's annual one-day coin show at Serb Hall will have come and gone. It was, of course, another successful show, with loads of thanks going to all of the volunteers, organizers, and participating dealers that make this possible.

Speaking of which, all club members who volunteer three hours or more of their time at the show will receive a complimentary ticket to the banquet at Alioto's. The banquet is quickly approaching on Saturday, October 19th. If you plan to attend, please contact Vice President Jim H (262-796-1814) as soon as possible so he can record your choice of entrée (steak, cod, or chicken).

Each year, Jim and his wife work extra hard to put together a fun and interesting banquet for the benefit of the members. I have been informed that this year's guest speaker will be Gary D'Amato, who is a sports columnist for the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel newspaper here in town. I am certain he will have some great stories to tell.

At the October meeting we will have the raffle ticket drawing for raffle tickets that were sold leading up to and at our coin show, so I encourage everyone to get out there and sell as many as possible. Then at the November meeting we will have our semi-annual general auction event. Please let Dave H. (davehuns@yahoo.com, no attachments) know exactly what you want to consign to the auction prior to November 1st, that way it can be published along with the newsletter.

The nominations committee has been formed, consisting of MNS Trustees Tom D., Gary B., and Stu C. Either let them know if you want to serve the club in an elected position, or they will find you!

All the best and here's looking forward to seeing you at the next meeting!

Happy Collecting,
Justin J. Perrault

ANA Correspondence Course

Course materials are now in the club library. Members may contact Joe Paonessa if you are interested. This is a great way to increase your numismatic knowledge, and get pretty certificates to hang on your wall to impress your friends.

Newsletter: Leon is requesting new articles from our members.

Membership: Trenton Marsolek of Oak Creek has applied for membership. He has been a collector since 2004.

Vice President: We are always looking for people to supply refreshments and present programs. If you have items you want to include in the club auction (November

New Business

Sign up sheets for working at the October 6th annual show were passed around. Raffle tickets are available and this year's wooden nickel is two sided so it can be used for next year's show as well. The Racine Numismatic Society 75th anniversary coin show will be held in February of 2014 in conjunction with NOW. The show will be commemorating Dick Yeoman (author of the now famous Red Book). There will also be competitive exhibits, and members may contact Joe Paonessa if you would be interested in exhibiting. MNS club officer elections are coming up. Our meeting room at Mayfair Mall has already been reserved for next year 2014, and we will be providing our mail "contact" with a small gift of our appreciation.

Old Business

The club has 14 coin display cases for sale at $40 each.

Exhibits

Leon showed off purchases from his trip to ANA and an award medal that he received when he visited Armenia in July. Tom Dallmann brought in his find at the ANA show. Tom Snyder came in with confederate money reproductions from the 1950's and a Milwaukee civil war token, Lee Hartz brought 3 Karl Goetz medals. Bruce Bartelt told what he did on his summer vacation, Dave Hunsicker talked about a no 's' proof set that he found, Jason Paonessa showed off his YN auction win GSA dollar, Joe Paonessa had a Ptolemy II bronze coin and some game of thrones pieces and Tom Ralston rounded out the evening with a Zimbabwe $100,000,000,000,000 bill that when printed had a buying power of 3 cents American.

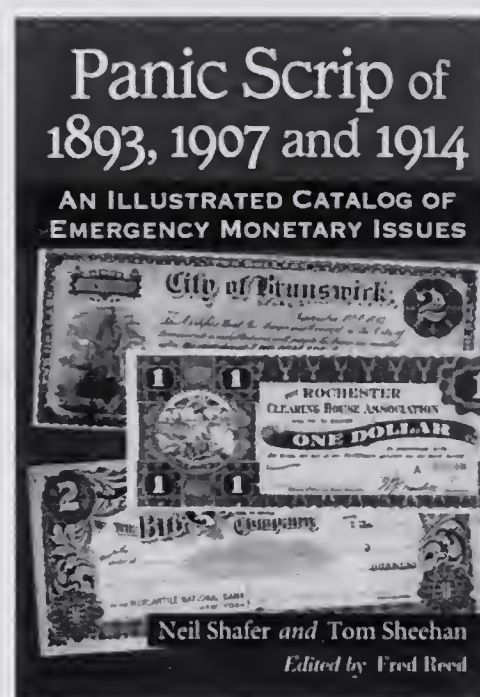

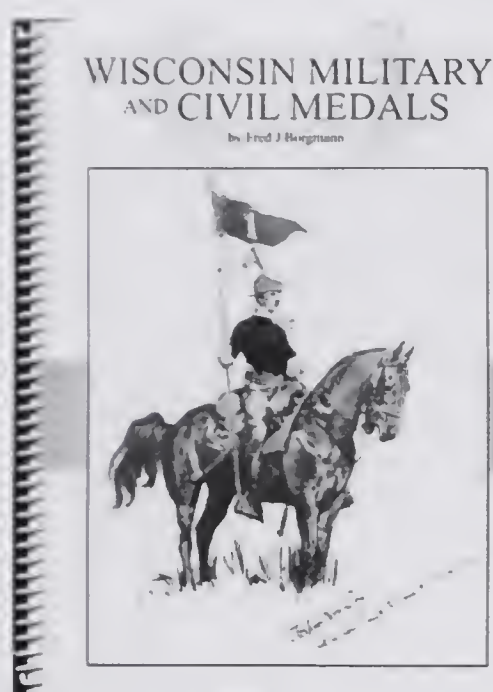

A motion to adjourn was made and meeting was adjourned at 8:54pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Joe Paonessa.

Secretary

New Books by MNS Members

WISCONSIN MILITARY AND CIVIL MEDALS by Fred J. Borgmann. Fred's new book covers military and civil medals of Wisconsin, and is considered superior to any state/local medal book ever published. Over 300 examples (including many that are rare, unique, and unpublished) are listed, of which well over 200 are fully illustrated on 174 full color (8x11 format) pages. Listings include physical descriptions with color scans of the front and back. Listings include medals earned by veterans, civilian medals, and presentation badges. The catalog begins with issues of the Wisconsin National Guard, then covers emissions of individual units. An extensive listing of state and local medals issued for war service is included. To transition from the military to the civilian sections there is a listing of the University of Wisconsin Corps of Cadets (ROTC) issues and an extensive alphabetical listing of medals from St. John's Military Academy. To prevent future misattributions, souvenir medals that were sold to the public to fund celebrations and monuments, plus fobs and badges that were sold at the summer camps of old are listed, all included in the hope that this information will save collectors more than a few dollars.

PANIC SCRIP OF 1893, 1907 AND 1914 by Neil Shafer. Neil's new book (written with Tom Sheehan, edited by Fred Reed) covers over 800 largely unpublished or unknown scrip currencies issued during US financial panics from 1893 to 1914. This is the first ever comprehensive look at this topic. Satirical notes and miscellaneous scrip of the period are included, as well as appendices on clearing house notes and labor certificates. The book is about 400 pages with an index. There are b/w illustrations on nearly every page; color images will be used for the books upcoming DVD version. This is a field in which new notes continue to be revealed. Neil received grants of support from MNS, SSCC, and NOW to prepare this book. The book will sell for $75 retail and the MNS library will get a copy in recognition of its support of the project.

CONGRATULATIONS TO BOTH OF OUR ESTEEMED AUTHORS!

MNS October 2013 Coin Show Recap

Our annual coin show was held on Sunday, October 6, 2013 at Serb Hall. Twenty-nine MNS members signed up to assist with the show. The rain stopped in the morning and the sun came out making it a great day for a coin show. We had 445 admissions to the show with many purchasing a least one raffle ticket. The show was packed in the morning but thinned around 12 noon at the start of the Packers game.

In the foyer' Betty lined up 19 cases of competitive exhibits submitted by three exhibitors. The awards will be presented at our fall banquet on October 19. A 1 PM NOW Board meeting brought a number of members from up-state, including Cliff Mishler, Fred Borgmann and Joel Edler.

MNS member Neil Shafer was at the show with a promotional copy of his new book on Panic Scrip. This book is long in coming and a welcome addition for rag pickers. The MNS, South Shore and NOW made financial contributions to help bring this book to fruition. This is the first book ever written on Panic Scrip. More information will be coming out on the price and where to obtain a copy. MNS member Fred Borgmann was also on hand with copies of his new book on Wisconsin military badges.

The club was able to sell several excess exhibit cases at the show which will eliminate our monthly storage fee. The club now has 36 cases. Twenty-four are stored by Tom Dallmann and twelve by David Hunsicker.

If you couldn't attend our September MNS meeting or didn't make the coin show to get your raffle tickets, you can purchase them at the October meeting. You can fill out the stubs at the meeting and get them into the jar before the raffle drawing is held.

I would like to thank all the club volunteers who helped make our show a success. I especially would like to thank the chairmen/chairladies who put in many hours in advance as well as at the show; David Hunsicker-Bourse; Lee Hartz-Treasurer; Betty Petrovick-Exhibits; Lillian Kasun-Raffle Tickets; Jim Heinrich-Dealer Registration; Stu Caddell-Public Registration; Tom Dallmann-Case Transport. We can now look forward to our next show on Sunday Oct. 5, 2014.

Tom Casper
Show Chairman

AND A BIG THANK YOU GOES TO TOM, WHO ALWAYS DOES A MASTERFUL JOB OF PULLING THE WHOLE THING TOGETHER EVERY YEAR. -
- MNS President and Board of Governors.
